Villa Edén is a project of astonishing shapes, exterior spaces designed in harmony with their surroundings, with natural materials, and where green prevails, and the blue sea in the background, in all a unique villa. The interior of Villa Edén is a statement of intent, neat shapes, where white prevails and the light and Mediterranean sun shines through its large windows. On the top floor, 3 bedrooms, all with their en-suite bathrooms and facing the sea, amaze us with their spaciousness and layout. On the lower floor, the living room and open plan kitchen are an extension of the terrace, opening...
