This villa is a work of art. It was built by the current owner, who put love and care into every detail. It is a hidden gem located on the sought after community of Monte de los Almendros in Salobreña. The villa overlooks the sea and the picturesque village of Salobreña, which are reachable in an easy drive, yet when you are in this villa you are transported to a tale of "One Thousand and One Night".

Both the exterior and the interior of the villa are a unique blend of Moorish, Moroccan and Andalusian details, which give the villa a special charm. It is a treat for the eyes to discover the different details! There are many ornamental arches, walls are covered with beautiful and...
