This lovely country house is located in a quiet neighbourhood of Valle del Sol, which is a few minutes drive to the town of San Pedro de Alcantara as well as the Resort Urbanisation Guadalmina. The plot of land is over 2.000 m2 and it has open views towards a lake and the La Concha mountain. The garden is very well maintained and it has an old large Carob tree as a main feature. The house was built in traditional Andalusian style featuring exposed beams, fireplace and terracotta flooring. It is ideal for families with kids to enjoy being outdoors and in the swimming pool with these stunning views....
