Liora Estepona is a new development next to the beach with spectacular design by Pininfarina. It is the first of its kind not only on the Costa del Sol, but the whole of Spain that such a branded residence is being built. There are various types of apartments each with spectacular sea view to the front and mountain views to the back. The building will be surrounded by tropical garden and only steps away from the beach and the beach promenade of Estepona. Besides the design what makes the property unique is the more than 2.600 square meter of common areas with rooftop outdoor pool, indoor pool and spa, gym, meeting spaces and much more....
